

ADVERTISING & CREDIT POLICIES

In consideration of the provision of advertising services, production services, or related services by Good Karma Broadcasting LLC ("GKB"), now and/or in the future, the Applicant/Third Party Agency (collectively, "Applicant") agrees to be bound by the following terms and conditions ("Advertising Policies"). These Advertising Policies shall govern all services provided by GKB unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing. The party executing this Agreement on behalf of the Applicant represents and warrants that it has full authority to do so.

APPLICANT / THIRD PARTY RIGHTS

1. Applicant acknowledges that services from GKB may be purchased on behalf of an advertiser if Applicant is an agency and may be purchased through an advertising agency or other service entity if Applicant is an advertiser (collectively, "Third Parties").
2. If Applicant is an advertiser, all agencies placing advertising orders with GKB shall be deemed authorized agents of Applicant.
3. Applicants remain responsible for payment of all advertising placed on its behalf, including through any Third Party.
4. Notwithstanding to whom invoices are rendered, Applicant and Third Parties shall remain jointly and severally liable for all amounts due to GKB until paid in full.
5. If executed by an agency, such agency acknowledges joint and several liability. If the undersigned signs as an agency for the Advertiser, said agency acknowledges liability for payment.

GKB BROADCAST STANDARDS AND RIGHTS

1. GKB does not discriminate in the sale of advertising time and will accept no advertising which is placed with intent to discriminate on the basis of race, gender or ethnicity. Advertiser hereby certifies that it is not buying broadcasting airtime under this advertising sales contract for any discriminatory purpose including, but not limited to, decisions not to place advertising on particular stations on the basis of race, gender, national origin or ancestry.
2. When the number of commercials in a selected time period exceeds GKB's broadcast standards, which may vary by station, GKB reserves the right to substitute comparable times.
3. If, due to public emergency or necessity, restriction imposed by law, act of God, epidemics/pandemics, mechanical or electrical breakdown, labor dispute, sports league work stoppage (including but not limited to strikes, lockouts, or cancellation of games or seasons), loss or suspension of broadcast rights, or for any other cause beyond GKB's control (each, a "Force Majeure Event"), GKB fails to make a broadcast or deliver any portion of the contracted services, GKB shall not be deemed in breach of this Agreement. In the event of a Force Majeure Event impacting sports programming or Play-by-Play inventory, GKB and Advertiser agree to work in good faith to reallocate the affected advertising, sponsorship, or marketing investment to comparable GKB media, digital, audio, event, or other related assets during the same general time period.
4. If such reallocation is not reasonably feasible or acceptable to Advertiser, then the time charges allocable to the omitted broadcast or undelivered services shall be credited to Advertiser. If a material part, but not all, of a scheduled broadcast or service is omitted, the applicable charges shall be equitably adjusted.
5. GKB shall have the right to cancel any broadcast in its sole discretion exercised in good faith.
6. Advertising materials must be received by the deadline specified by GKB.
7. GKB may reject such material in its reasonable discretion.
8. GKB reserves the right to discontinue or refuse any advertising for reasons satisfactory to GKB, including outstanding payment.
9. GKB is authorized to disclose the Applicant's performance of this agreement to proper people and bureau.
10. GKB will work in cooperation with Applicant/Third Party Agency to strive to achieve optimum results but does not guarantee any desired outcome.
