7) Supplemental Recruitment Initiatives:

(a) Initiative: Internship Program

The Employment Unit operates an internship program which allows interns to gain experience in many areas of the radio industry. Internships are available year round. During the period covered by this report, 24 interns participated in the program and all received college credit. Internships are available in the areas of programming, sales, promotions, and administration. Depending on the main focus of the internship, interns may report directly to a Sales Manager, General Manager, Content Director, Internship Coordinator, Marketing Director, or Marketing Facilitator. Interns learn a wide variety of skills, including but not limited to: writing on-air copy and promotional announcements, website maintenance, writing and sending out press releases, miscellaneous office responsibilities, assisting on-air talent with remote broadcasts including set-up and tear down, board-opping and help with show producing, and recapping events for clients. Interns are recruited from the many universities, colleges, and technical colleges in and out of the Cleveland area, including: Baldwin Wallace College, Cleveland State University, The Ohio State University, John Carroll University, Kent State University, Ashland University, Notre Dame College, Mount Vernon Nazarene University, University of Akron, Case Western University, The Ohio Media School, Youngstown State University, Ohio University, Florida State, Elon University, Bowling Green State University, Villanova University, and University of Pittsburgh.

(b) Initiative: Mentoring Program

The employment unit has implemented a mentoring program called Big Brothers/Big Sisters. It is intended to pair up Good Karma Broadcasting teammates (i.e. employees) across markets and encourage veteran teammates and new teammates to develop a relationship, share ideas and advice and become a resource for each other.

(c) Initiative: Job Shadowing

Good Karma Broadcasting instituted and provides a job shadowing program. In this program, students from area middle schools, high schools, and colleges visit the station and shadow an Employment Unit employee for an entire day, giving them a feel for careers in the broadcasting industry. A middle school student shadowed the employment unit's production director and on-air hosts on June 5, 2018. A high school student also shadowed the production director and on-air hosts on July 17, 2018. A college student shadowed the production director and on-air hosts on November 20, 2018 and another student on May 15, 2019. One of the employment unit's production director had a high school student job shadow from May 7 – 11, 2019. Two middle school students also shadowed one of the employment unit's on-air host on May 11, 2019.

(d) Initiative: Participation in Educational Institution and Community Events
